Online Live Monthly Workshops

Experience live workshops led by scholars, ministry practitioners, and coaches to help you make the key shifts that will help your church or faith community flourish in today's world. These are the same workshops Faith+Lead has been hosting for years for $45 each. Inside the membership, you get them for FREE.

Monthly Live Group Coaching

As you're in the process of trying new things, questions and challenges will arise. That's why we'll host monthly live group coaching sessions for members based on your ministry role (clergy, church volunteer or ministry leader, or ministry innovator) where you can ask real questions and learn from peers and real case studies through the facilitation and coaching of our Faith+Lead coaches.

How do I join these?
Are there recordings?

Go to the events to RSVP (not required but welcome). The monthly group coaching is not recorded.

A Private Social Network

Our entire membership experience is delivered inside the Learning Lab—a safe, supportive private social network where you can connect and learn with other members... without selling your soul (or data!) to big tech. Join and create groups based on your interests and ministry roles, connect with others around the globe or down the street, and participate in weekly spiritual practices hosted inside the Lab.

Where can I chat with others and see the group?
