

Molly Beck Dean serves as the Director of the ELCA Youth Gathering, a triennial faith formation event for 30,000 high school youth and their adult leaders. Prior to this call, she was a part of synodical, congregational, outdoor ministry and parachurch staffs focusing on ministry with young people. Molly lives outside of Chicago with her two children and loves ice cream, dogs, and time outside in the sunshine.