A. Amy J. Chalupnik

Minister of Word & Sacrament

Conference:

Rum River

Congregation Membership:

Lord of Life, Ramsey

Current Vocation:

Associate Pastor for Faith Formation

Church Activities and Leadership, Community Activities and Leadership, and Other Information You Would Like to Share:

Pastor Amy is a graduate of Gustavus Adolphus College and Luther Seminary. Along with her current call to LOL, Amy occasionally volunteers with the Bison Baseball Association, the Buffalo Rotary, Let's Go Fishing with Seniors, local Boy Scout Troop, and Feed My Starving Children.

Utilizing varied skills, Amy looks forward to serving in new ways for our Synod. Described as "poised and graceful with impertinence, able to work with persons with discordant views, and non-anxious non-reactive", Amy believes that God's grace means we can be graceful in our differences.

Amy and her husband of 20 years, Jason, live in Buffalo, and along with their two teenage boys, Tommy and Danny. Periodically the family grows, as they regularly hosts Rotary International exchange students. Amy enjoys a vegetable gardening, vocal music, baseball, watching movies, traveling, and playing cards.

B. Susan Engholm

Minister of Word & Sacrament

Conference:

Southwest

Congregation Membership:

Trinity Lutheran, Watertown

Current Vocation:

Pastor (on leave from call), Spiritual Director

Church Activities and Leadership:

Because I am on leave from call, I offer pulpit supply to area congregations. I am also a spiritual director and offer individual direction as well as retreats. Within the work of the larger church, I have enjoyed serving the past two years as a "process builder" for the upcoming women and justice social statement, "Faith, Sexism, and Justice".

Community Activities and Leadership:

Over the years I have participated in Safe Avenues, a domestic violence shelter, and for Green Lake Lutheran Ministries. This past year I was honored to be invited to Kosovo to participate in an international interfaith conference. The topic of the 2016 conference was the role of women in promoting Interfaith dialogue and preventing violent extremism.

Other Information You Would Like to Share:

I was ordained in 2003 and have served in a variety of settings including associate pastor, chaplain at a treatment center, and interim pastor. I currently reside in Watertown with my husband Jeff and our dog Beverly.

Current Vocation:

Associate Pastor

Church Activities and Leadership:

Sharing the gospel of Christ through word and sacrament, and helping the congregation (myself included) discern their gifts so that we may share God's love in the world.

Community Activities and Leadership:

Currently, I am in a season of life where my community activities are centered around my 4 month old and how they work into our family schedule. It is a new discernment process on where/how to share my time, energy and resources.

Other Information You Would Like to Share:

I am a new mom who loves to read and run, and in the winter those occur at the same time while on a treadmill. As someone who has studied sociology, I love seeing patterns and traits in groups of people, and making connections between those around me. And, secretly, I am very systematic and organized, even though the top of my desk would appear otherwise.
